

Have You Been Purged..... Are You Registered To Vote??

The report this week by Mrs. Vera Jones, Belle Glade City Clerk that 722 registered voters were removed from the list of eligible electors comes as a shock. The city clerk completed this past week a purge of the election rolls and determined that only 1,927 voters out of a previous list of some 2600 were eligible to vote in the coming city election on Sept. 13.

The list purge in 1965 was the biggest in years, according to Mrs. Jones, when 97 names were stricken from the city's registration books.

The law says you can pull names after two years if registrants haven't voted, the city clerk said. Extending every possible leniency only names of those who have not voted since 1963 have been removed.

With an estimated population of over 16,000 persons living within the city limits, it would seem reasonable that at least one out of every four would be eligible to qualify as a citizen of the community. Our list of registered voters should approach 4,000 voters.

Perhaps we should have expected this large number to be purged when we check past voting records where only 15 percent to 30 percent of those eligible bothered to vote.

Hardly a day passes but some comments are made by residents critical of government but do these persons take the time to vote? Apparently not. WHOSE GOVERNMENT IS IT IF NOT YOURS.

The list of purged voters is printed in this issue of the Herald for you to check. In it are names of well established business men, teachers and community workers.

You can qualify to vote by registering at the city hall Mondays through Fridays from 8 A. M. to 4:30 P. M. until Sept. 2nd.

There will be two city commission seats to be filled for a two year term. Commissioner LeBren Williams announced that he would not be a candidate for re-election for the northboro seat. Three candidates have qualified at this time, Bunn McCall, loan executive of the Everglades Savings and Loan Association, Donald Winterrowd, transportation supervisor of the Sugar Cane Coop., and George L. Connell partner in Connell's Hardware Store.

H. C. (Connie) Bowen incumbent commissioner from centralboro has qualified to seek re-election to this post. The qualifying deadline for candidates is August 24th.

If you have been a resident of Belle Glade for 12 months, a citizen of the United States and 21 years or older you are eligible to register and vote. You must register before Sept. 2. Please make your choice heard.

Innoculations Required For First Graders

Palm Beach County School Officials are receiving many inquiries as to what inoculations are required for first graders entering the schools for the 1966-67 school year.

Superintendent Robert W. Fulton states that the following inoculations will be required:

"The inoculations required of entering pupils are small pox — evidence of vaccination within five years, poliomyelitis — evidence of having received either three doses of oral monovalent vaccine or two doses of oral trivalent vaccine prior to school entrance. This oral vaccine is strongly recommended instead of the Salk vaccine.

Diphtheria and Tetanus — these three small pox, poliomyelitis, diphtheria & tetanus are at the present time required. Our County Health Department also urges immunization against measles. Further the diphtheria tetanus, it is urged should be diphtheria pertussis tetanus. The pertussis immunization is against whooping cough. Because some of these immunizations may have after effects which make the children uncomfortable, it is urged that they be completed well in advance of entering school."

Scientific, Practical Experimentation Combined In Glades Cattle Production

Early in the 1950's the herd of cattle belonging to the Glades Correctional Institution was much like most other herds of common Florida cattle and plagued with the same kind of internal and external parasites, mineral deficiencies and diseases. It was not uncommon in those days to see as many as 10% of any given herd in a special "sick" pasture.

The Everglades experiment station had made great progress in discovering problems affecting cattle but practical solutions could not be worked out ideally under "station" conditions. They had been observing the prison farm cattle and making suggestions.

About 1954 Mr. L. P. (Hap) Parson took over agro-industrial production at the Glades Correctional Institution farm which included livestock production. With the assistance of the Experiment Station and Dr. Marvin Kroger, Animal Husbandry Specialist of the University Extension Division Mr. Parson started a program which has gone far to bridge the gap between "pure" scientific experimentation and practical livestock production.

The primary purpose of the prison farms cattle was to produce beef for the feeding of prisoners and state hospital patients at the lowest possible cost to the taxpayer and secondarily to provide productive work for the prisoners. Under Mr. Parson's direction the herd became an extension and enlargement of the Everglades Experiment Station work. Today this experimental herd produces meat products under practical conditions. The program is a study of the use of one of the American breeds of cattle in producing strains or crosses of this breed which is best adapted to the subtropical conditions of Florida. The breed used is Brangus which is derived from crossing Angus with Brahman.

Another continuing test determines the practical aspects of different feeding programs and others have to do with the effective use of drugs both as preventives and as treatment for specific disease.

In 1965 they found that by implanting a 10¢ pellet of silbestrone under the skin of a nursing steer calf that covered such factors as fertility, weight for age of

Phyllis M. Mansfield, Assistant City Clerk, will register voters until September 2 when the books close. The election will be held on September 13. The registering process, shown above, takes only five minutes. (See list of voters who are being removed from the books on page 9.)

Government Workers Said Organizing Migrants

A complaint was filed with Mr. Walter Keyes, Director of the Division of Economic Opportunity in Tallahassee, asking for an investigation as to whether taxpayers money is being used by poverty officials to organize Florida's 100,000 farmworkers. The request was filed by Allison T. French, Executive Vice-President of the Florida Coalition of Patriotic Societies, Tampa, Florida.

French says: "Have you ever heard of anyone whose hobby was organizing labor unions? I never have, and that's why we need a complete investigation to determine whether three officials of two poverty projects are working with the farmworkers union in their spare time, or whether they are doing this at taxpayer's expense."

The complaint cites a newsletter of the United Agricultural Workers of America which lists Bill Johnson and Hank Mayer as editors. Johnson is Broward county regional director for the Community Action Fund a $610,000 poverty project, and Mayer is with the Lake Worth chapter of the American Friends Service Committee which has received a $98,000 grant from the Office of Economic Opportunity to study the conditions of migrant farmworkers. Roscoe C. Webb, CAF director in Dade County is listed in the newsletter as a "Special Consultant."

The newsletter also tells farmworkers to call Lake Worth 965-6981 if they have trouble in the North and ask for "STOOP." The letter adds: "This service will be available only to crew leaders who are members of UAWA." French charges that the number is the same one as the unit of the American Friends which received the government grant.

The Florida Coalition's request refers to union organizing efforts in California, scene of the grape strike a few months ago when (Continued on Page 16)

Enrollment Up, Teachers Needed

The cry of Belle Glade Elementary School principals as the start of the school year nears is "We still need teachers."

City Hall Briefs

The City Commission held its all day budget session Wednesday.

Work is progressing on the new raw water intake from the lake. Pumps should be installed next week, pending the arrival of equipment.

The Municipal Pool was inspected by the State Health Inspector last week. The pool was in satisfactory condition and the inspector said it was the best he had seen in a long time.

In addition to the Street Department's routine work they have been clearing the walkways for the use of school children. School starts August 29.

The new bridge will be finished in from 45 to 60 days. The bridge construction was held up waiting for the prestressed concrete piling to be delivered. This will be the fifth bridge across the canal.

The one exception to this is Belle Glade Elementary School. They have their post 850, an increase of from 75 to 100 over last year. The staff will consist of 29 regular teachers, two exceptional program teachers, one corrective reading teacher and library and music teachers.

At Lake Shore Elementary an expected increase of 30 students will bring this year's enrollment up to 500 pupils. They need five teachers.

Grove Elementary will increase slightly to 500 pupils this year. They, too, need teachers.

Glade View expects an enrollment of 600 this year, an increase of 58 over last year.

Each adult cow at GCI is carefully evaluated by means of the calves she produces. Any year she does not produce a calf she automatically goes to slaughter. Her offspring must be of acceptable quality and make satisfactory weight gain up to weaning time. Many South Florida ranches follow these practices as a result of information obtained by experimental stations in such projects are carried on at GCI.

As a result of training under J. T. Lee Supervisor-Instructor qualified inmates may be paroled into a good paying job in any department of a dairy. Upon completion of a sentence a competent trainee has no difficulty in obtaining and holding a job on the "outside."

Sugar Corporation And Union Settle Dispute

Signs of relief were heard this week from not only employees and employer, but also merchants, with the settlement of the labor dispute between the U. S. Sugar Corporation and approximately 450 members of the local machinists union.

The dispute, first in the sugar mill, has affected both the Clewiston and Bryant plants since July 5th. Workers began returning to work Tuesday on their regular shifts.

Both officials of the sugar company and officers of the union issued statements expressing support of the agreement and maintenance of harmonious relations. The union members who voted 296-18 to accept the 16 point agreement still have a complaint before the National Labor Relations board regarding an alleged company lockout.

Terms agreed upon brought a pay raise in several categories plus a six percent bonus to be paid immediately. Wage increases, retroactive to April 1966, will be paid in some instances while others will not become effective until March 1, 1967.

All of the Glades communities felt the effects of the work stoppage, pointing out the dependence of the area on the sugar cane industry.

Sorry...The Manager Is The Cook!

"This is an outrage," an indignant middle-aged man loudly confronted a busy waitress in a modern new restaurant last weekend "I've been waiting long enough for three breakfasts to be cooked! What's the matter? Don't you folks know how to run this place? Other people around me have been served... I demand to see the manager at once!"

The man irritably paced back and forth. Another attractive young lady appeared back of the counter near where the furious complainer stood. "Are you the manager here?" he queried.

"No, but perhaps, I could help you."

"All I want is service," he again emphasized. "I DEMAND to see the manager at once!" Black scowls lined his face as the man continued pacing back and forth.

Another pleasant young lady appeared. "Where is the manager?" I demand to see the manager at once!"

The injured customer again affirmed. "Just a moment, please," the soft-toned voice answered as she made her way toward the kitchen.

Reappearing shortly, the girl said in a simple, kindly manner: "I'm sorry, sir. The manager said to tell you he is too busy cooking to see you."

Exits the ulcer-prone hungry, irritated man, muttering to himself all the way to the door.

Appetites seemed not affected at all among the houseful still waiting or eating. In fact the episode brought forth understanding comments among the many at tables who HAD HEARD OF, OR EXPERIENCED FIRST HAND "HELP SHORTAGES".

Likely our injured friend was not informed on problems of the area and had little idea that every motel was filled and every restaurant jammed to capacity by parents, grandmothers, brothers, sisters, aunts and uncles who swarmed Tallahassee to see their Johnny or Mary" awarded at graduation ceremonies.

Why Not Consider All The Facts?

Through modern communication our attention is called to the spectacular. Riots in Watts, Chicago and Cleveland — multiple killings by deranged people from Austin, Texas to the Moors of England — the horrors of war from all over the world.

Are we inclined to accept such news as prima facie evidence of a world headed for destruction?

Why not take a little time to consider other indications of trends of the times? The field of education is especially worthy of thought. Here, too, spectacular news may reveal many things which would strengthen a preconceived belief that the societies of the world are headed for oblivion.

Witness the efforts of communism to indoctrinate the world. Consider the student demonstrations at universities, not only in our own country but throughout the world. The open ridicule of religious concepts by so called educators.

It makes the future look pretty dark, doesn't it? But, there are other news often overlooked because it is not sensational.

Let's take a look at the news of 180 students enrolled in the University of Kentucky as reported in Time Magazine on August 12, 1966 and consider this quotation: "I love an exam," bubbles Elma Fox... "I want to find out what I know." Helen Ellner, a classmate confesses that "I get so engrossed in class that I never know what time it is." Cord Isabel Cottingham concurs: "I adore this give-and-take with professors."

Are these students being indoctrinated? The answer is an undisputed NO. To begin with they are all age 65 or more. Their instructors are student-centered and are dedicated to helping them learn the things they want to know and relate this knowledge to their own lives. And what do they want to know?

"Go to the top, then slugged," this is exactly what they are doing. Having reached a point in life where they don't have to be told what and how to think they are rediscovering the joy of "becoming as little children" and exalting in finding new answers to old questions.

Or, take a look at another age group which you would not ordinarily expect to find attending classes at hundreds of junior colleges and in thousands of classes being conducted by college professors in local high schools throughout the nation.

Primarily these students are taking courses in an effort to become more effective in their jobs. Are they being indoctrinated? Question them and you will find that job efficiency and advancement is not the only reason they seek new knowledge. They are also making a serious attempt to discover answers to problems that frustrate others and cause riots, mass murders, and wars.

Yes, there is evidence that we can, with confidence, live in hope for a better society. There is evidence that even in an overcrowded world we can find freedom and develop ourselves as individuals without having to rely upon our ability to maintain an insecure position by dominating others because of our poorly developed personality or underdeveloped abilities.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Belle Glade

Aug. 15, 1966

I just want to get something off my chest that has been bugging me for a long time. In listening to people talk about conditions as resider some of the things they thought and wrote but which are not often quoted. We might condemn Goldwater for being too "right wing" or J. F. Kennedy for being too "left wing" but are we familiar with the broad area of thinking about which they were in full agreement? It is possible for us to have the respect for each of them which they had for each other?

It is the underlying philosophy of the society concerning authority which sets the trend of the government and not the particular form. Thus democratic forms of government have given way to authoritarian forms and where people have knowledge and understanding authoritarian governments have given way to democratic forms.

The future of our society depends upon the extent to which we understand and support democratic principles and guard against excesses in any of these principles. A democracy degenerates into anarchy or excess individualism. Authoritarian societies degenerate into dictatorship.

To Belle Glade Herald:
I have been reading your paper for many years and want to say I find myself waiting for it each week. It is most like a letter from my family.

I really enjoyed the Editorial page in this week's issue (8-11-66). I am deeply interested in Belle Glade, I visit there every year with my son and family, and am amazed every year at the growth these past 15 years.

I was sorry to hear of Mr. Jones' death — a great loss to Belle Glade. I feel those who are associated with The Herald and the City are fortunate to have Mrs. Williams' contribution to the publication, and I want to wish her and staff much success with the Paper.

Respectfully,
Mrs. Pauline Elzas

Belle Glade's Finest

Over the desk of Chief Charles D. Goodlett of the Belle Glade Police Department proudly hangs a plaque, designating him as a graduate of the Federal Bureau of Investigation National Academy, Washington, D.C.

A department of 27 individuals has been developed since 1948, the year Goodlett became chief. The citizens of Belle Glade can boast of one of the finest police organizations among cities its size and larger in the country.

The record speaks for itself. With a national average of 1.9 policemen employed per thousand of population, Belle Glade with an estimated 17,500 persons averages about 1.5 per thousand. Some cities have as high as 7.8 per thousand. With this force Goodlett is faced with enforcing the laws in a community whose population is highly transient.

Adding to law enforcement problems today are the recent supreme Court rulings which complicate taking convictions even against criminals who admit their guilt. In Goodlett's opinion, "Crime will never be legislated out of existence." "Society itself," he says, "will and does limit the enforcement of laws."

A good example is drunk driving cases where many persons in a community will come to the defense of a citizen, in an effort to reduce or try to get someone's sentence cancelled.

Leading the seriousness of local offenses faced by the department is that of "assault on persons". Although this type of offense grows steadily worse nation wide, the number in Belle Glade decreases.

Uncle Dan From Doolie Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

The fellers at the store Saturday night was general agreed we was gitting too many "experts" for the size of the country. Ed Doolie said you couldn't pick up the paper no more without reading where a "expert" was expounding on one thing or another.

Farthermore, claimed Ed, all of them was from some big city or college and wouldn't have sense enough to walk a footling if they got lost some place out in the grassroots country.

What brung the subject up, Mister Editor, was Zeke Grubb reporting he had saw where a "expert economist" from the Department of Commerce announced our prospects depended on increased installment and long-term credit buying. In other words, the deeper in debt we gitt the more prosperity we got. All the fellers was mighty glad to gitt this expert information straight from the horse's mouth on account of its made all of us the most prosperous folks in the community.

Bug Hookum was telling about a expert in Utah announcing here a while back that what us old fellers needed most to round out our golden years was two or three extra wives. Bug was of the opinion it was had enough facing just one wife when he come home late from the store ever Saturday night.

Clem Webster allowed as how a expert in Chicago had come out with some information on the whole human race. This feller, a doctor, told a Governor's conference folks everywhere has changed and the change was on account of their glands has changed. If a feller went wrong, he said, it was probable he was the victim of his glands. But Clem said he didn't have no symptom ter a feller if his glands went wrong and he was still in favor of putting him in jail, glands and all.

I reckon one of the best experts we got is Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman. They ain't none better in the business. Mister Editor, than our Secretary of Agriculture I was reading where he made a speech the other day and said the high food prices was very "reassuring" for the American people. It was his expert opinion that as long as food prices went up wages would keep going up and we would have great national prosperity.

I don't know what this country is coming to if we don't gitt rid of some of these experts. And it looks like everybody was trying to gitt in on the act. I was reading where a expert English skykrift claimed Americans was the most worried people in the world. If he was paying the world's bills, Mister Editor, he would be worried, too.

Yours truly,
Uncle Dan

Mrs. Llewellyn Buried In Texas

Dr. and Mrs. Paul Llewellyn are back in their office this week after making a rushed drive to Texas where they were called by the sudden death of Dr. Llewellyn's mother, Mrs. Ethel Llewellyn.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Mrs. Llewellyn resided in Belle Glade with her son and family since the death of her husband about four years ago. A spry and active 76, Mrs. Llewellyn, despite a mild cardiac condition, taught a group of art students in Belle Glade.

On June 5, she flew to Austin, Texas to visit her daughter, Mrs. Jeanne Lackie. Accompanying her were her daughter-in-law and grandson Mrs. Paul Llewellyn and son Greg, who returned to Belle Glade July 5.

Mrs. Ethel Llewellyn suffered a mild heart attack the evening of August 4, at her daughter's home and a massive fatal attack the next morning.

Burial was in Mission Burial Park San Antonio, Texas, following services in the Mission Chapel.

Survivors, in addition to her son, Paul, Belle Glade, are a daughter, Mrs. Winifred Kimball, Boynton Beach, Florida, the daughter, Mrs. Jeanne Lackie, Austin, Texas, at whose home she passed away. Also surviving are 12 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren.

A Tribute In Memory

Please allow me to make this small tribute to my beloved friend and teacher, Ethel Llewellyn. To know her was never to forget her. She was an artist and like famous artists she left something of greatness with all of us who knew her.

Art and music were not her only accomplishments. Her gracious manner of prayer, wisdom in her soft spoken words created an interest and had a lasting influence on those who were fortunate in knowing her. Ethel Llewellyn was my art teacher for two years. As her student she taught me not only to create beauty on canvas but to observe the beauty of nature and of life itself. The beauty that God gave us is still here and will remain; the beauty she left with us, in so many ways, lives on.

Make Application Now For Dec. Gun Hunts

TALLAHASSEE — Hunters who wish to take part in the gun hunts on the Citrus Wildlife Management Area, have three months in which to submit applications to the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission at Tallahassee.

Individuals or parties of not more than five hunters wishing to participate in one of the three special gun hunts scheduled for the Citrus Wildlife Management Area should apply to the office of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission at Tallahassee, or the Regional Offices located at Panama City, Lake City, Ocala, Lakeland or West Palm Beach. Official application forms and information will then be mailed to each applicant for completion and return to Tallahassee by October 24 for the drawing on October 31.

Gun hunting in the area will be limited to three controlled hunts, with not more than 1200 hunters participating in each hunt. Dates for the three hunts are: December 10-11, December 17-18 and December 31-January 1. Hunters may not participate in more than one of the special hunts. Application forms may contain names of from one to five persons and will be consecutively numbered as received in Tallahassee. No name will be honored on more than one application. Application must also indicate date of hunt being applied for and serial number of the Public Hunting Area Stamp for each member of the party. Total limit for each hunt shall be 100 legal buck deer. In each case

11 Glades Girls Attending Baton Camp

The Annual Central Florida Baton Camp is being held at Howey Academy, Howey-in-the-Hills, (Fla.) from August 14 through August 20. Some 270 students from as far away as Washington State are taking instruction in baton twirling, strutting, charm, and everything it takes to please a crowd during football halftime.

The camp is directed by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carter of Eustis (Fla.) and is held on the 26-acre Howey Academy campus. Students have full access to all facilities of the Academy — a co-educational, independent, college preparatory school.

Attending from the Belle Glade area are Jackie Baughman, Laurie Collins, Donna Connell, Sandra Ferrell, Cathy Holloved, Nina Lindrose, Shari Smith, Kathy Smith, Gail Parker, Mildred Parker and Sandy Winterrowd.

Robert Erickson

New Engineer At WSWN Station

Robert Erickson of Canal Point has assumed engineering duties with Radio Station WSWN.

The position was created with the sudden death of C. S. "Curly" Clemans last week.

Marvin Smith, local station manager, stated that First Class Radio Engineers are difficult to find and that WSWN is indeed fortunate in having obtained the services of Erickson.

In a tribute to the late Mr. Clemans, Smith stated that there was never a more reliable and knowledgeable engineer. Having constructed WSWN along with Tom Watson, Jr., Mr. Clemans had maintained the engineering department to near perfection since going on the air October 5, 1947. Coverage of the station is the envy of the industry. Mr. Clemans greatly contributed to this achievement through his diligent engineering practices.

Smith went on to say that young Erickson has shown remarkable understanding of radio engineering that will be of great benefit in assuring the continued operation of the station from a technical standpoint.

Robert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Erickson of Canal Point.

as the hunters take 100 legal buck deer on the first day of any hunt, the remainder of the hunt will be closed.

There will be no special charges for hunting on the area other than the regular hunting license and the regular Public Hunting Area Stamp applicable to most management areas.

"Tough Tour Of Duty"

Army reservists training at Camp Shelby, Miss., who are members of the 1920th U. S. Army Garrison from West Palm Beach are undergoing their toughest tour of duty in quite some years.

Stung by reports of criticisms of inadequate training and lack of preparation for combat duty, the reservists are spending up to 12 hours per day in basic courses in 90 to 100 degree Mississippi weather.

Local members of the unit who will be returning home this weekend include Captains Joseph Bass, Charles Corbin and Major Roscoe Legg of Belle Glade and Captain Don Adams of Palatka.

Due to the heavy draft calls at regular army camps the unit is training their own recruits in basic training. Camp Shelby is a National Guard activated camp and the Garrison has been complimented by the Missisippi Adjutant General for their professional conduct in the field.

A friend of ours in the second grade was told by his teacher that the visiting accreditation committee might ask them some questions. She stated that if you don't know the answer, tell them you don't but that you will try to find out. The child was telling this to his mother, and his mother asked him where he would find the answer. The boy said, "First I would ask my teacher. If she doesn't know I will ask Mr. Smith (principal). If he doesn't know I will ask Mr. Buchanan (superintendent). And if he doesn't know I will ask Washington."

Let's just hope all the younger generation doesn't look to Washington for all the answers.

Practice started Monday for the Belle Glade Rams. 72 boys came for practice, said Coach Bill Burke. Twelve of these are lettermen.

Vows Spoken In St. Philip Benizi Church

In a double ring ceremony last Friday evening at St. Philip Benizi Catholic Church, Miss Edna Maria Ely became the bride of Carlos Jose Pena, Rev. Magr Jose M. Jaurist, officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Edna Tryon of Longhorn Drive, Apopka. She is a 1966 graduate of Belle Glade High School, where she was a member of the Pep Club, Pama Medics, FHA and DCT. She also was a member of the 4-H Club. Her former home was 309 N. W. 14th St., Belle Glade.

The bride groom, son of Mrs. Lenora Pena, Belle Glade is from Sauvala Grande, Cuba and a graduate of (Sagmo Connazon) Catholic School, He is presently employed by Big B Ranch.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Kathy Ferguson, organist and Miss Teresa Wilder, soloist.

Given in marriage by her brother, Richard Ely, the bride wore a white floor length lace over tulle gown. The fitted bodice was fashioned with pearls around the neckline and long wrist length sleeves. The skirt featured a busel in the back and was scalloped at the hem. Her pearl tulle held in place an elbow length veil of illusion. She carried a cascade of white carnations.

Miracles

"And the prayer of faith will save the sick man and the Lord will raise him up; and if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven."

— James 5:15

We have no right to beg, demand, or ask miracles. We cannot turn to God in a moment of sorrow or deprivation and believe that suddenly things will be "right" again.

We should have faith, faith in the goodness of God and in the belief that each individual has an eternal purpose and an ultimate destiny.

There is for no man the guarantee of an easy life or an age without sorrow. But there is the promise of comfort and strength; it is found in prayer and faith.

"High Family Day" Aug. 20

Robert King High, Democratic Nominee for Governor, announced today that he has accepted an invitation from the Community Club of Flat Creek, Tennessee, to attend a celebration to be held in that settlement on August 20th, in honor of his family. The celebration will be called "High Family Day" and more than a thousand Tennesseans are expected to attend the largest gathering in the history of Flat Creek, which has a population of less than one hundred. A typical Flat Creek Sunday dinner of fried chicken, mashed potatoes, field peas and hot biscuits will be served. Performers from the Grand Ole Opry, in Nashville, will provide continuous music. The all-day program will also include games, fiddling, square dancing and oratory contests.

Construction For Bryant Announced

The U. S. Sugar Company announced Wednesday plans to construct duplex housing facilities in Bryant. The low bidder was Roe Steele of Belle Glade, a company spokesman said. This is the first construction in a program of renovating eight of the company's labor villages. The duplexes will house the families of the year-round farm labor force. Thirty-five units are to be built and construction is to start next week. The Company is also in the process of rebidding for the construction of a sewage disposal plant in connection with the housing development.

Mexico City is the third largest city in North America after New York and Chicago, with a population of nearly 3 million.

TRAVEL AND VACATION

AUG. 18, 1966 THE HERALD, Belle Glade, Fla. Page 7

Mrs. Ruth Wedgworth and Mrs. Edith Freedlund were touring the Mediterranean countries, including the Holy Land, and the following is a letter from Mrs. Freedlund concerning the trip.

We left Haifa, Israel on the Italian Steamer "Eotria", stopping for a tour thru the island of Cyprus. Larnaca, the capital, has a population of 600,000. In 1914 this was a British Colony and in 1960 it became a Republic. In 1963 fighting broke out between the Turks and the Greeks, and is still continuing. We were stopped by Guards seven times in the interior. One city was divided, and had sandbags, barbed wire, and soldiers guarding each cross street. There are seven thousand U. N. troops patrolling this area. The English have a Base covering ninety square miles on the island. There are many small cottages with flowers in bloom, and some formal gardens. Oranges and potatoes are grown for export. In one store window I saw washing machines and dryers displayed.

Our next stop was the island of Rhodes. We took a taxi to the Valley of Butterflies. It was early for the swarms of butterflies, but a native blonde police whistle and out would fly a butterfly (unbelievable, but true). They are all the same color-terracotta red and yellow. There were apricots, figs, olives, and oranges growing with many windmills scattered thru the fields. The blades of the windmills were covered with cloth. These are gradually being replaced by modern in Athens. Buildings, old and new, have the Doric, Ionic or Corinthian columns. The famous Parthenon on top of the Acropolis of Athens, towers over the city and is perhaps the most famous ruin we studied in Ancient History. Twelve thousand people worked for ten years on this building.

Our guide, George Chan, had an Egyptian mother and a Chinese father. He is a graduate of Oxford University in England and for days has been telling us stories of Greek Mythology and history as we drive thru the country. This has been very entertaining and educational, but has left me completely confused. We walked in front of the Royal Palace to see the Guard in his unique uniform-white hotards with a very short white pleated skirt black measuring sixty yards around. He had on a round red hat with a long black tassel. His shoes have a huge black pom-pom on the top. He stands holding a gun for one hour, motionless, except for a brief walk every fifteen minutes. There was a first route of the Marathon runner, who ran over twenty six miles, and died after running the word, "Victory."

The museums are full of priceless statues, mosaics, pictures, urns, coins, and jewelry. Thirty five pounds of gold was found in one tomb. Driving towards Corinth there is a four lane highway for sixty four miles. There are a number of signs of Mobil, Shell and Esso. The Acropolis of Corinth dates back to 5,000 B.C. In the past the churches in Greece have been destroyed by Turkish Hordes, Venetians, Crusaders, and Roders on each side-a beautiful sight. Everywhere new buildings are being constructed.

Driving from Athens to Delphi, the country is very beautiful and mountainous. Farming is done on steep slopes. The grape vines are often one hundred years old, and still bearing fruit. There are many small roadside shrines built where an ancient Icon was found. The city of Thebes is where Alexander the Great fought in 338 B.C. at the age of sixteen. Along the highway were whitewashed signs painted on rocks and cliffs saying, "Long live the king." The Greeks are very proud of the fact that the king was an Olympic winner in 1860.

At Delphi, the home of Apollo, was the world famous "Oracle of Delphi" located in the exact center of the earth. The huge Stadium is where they held the contests-javruins are still being uncovered. Driving towards Patras we see a valley of olives. There are five million olive trees in this area, 2,000 of these trees are over 5,000 years old. These are the Jumbo olives. They have two crops every year and 8,000 Spaniards are imported to pick them. These girls live in tents and earn about $1.66 per hour. We walked thru an olive pickershouse, open on two sides. There were field boxes of olives everywhere, and two machines that made slits in each olive so they could absorb the brine better. One vat held over 1,200 pounds of olives in brine. The swallows were flying back and forth, and there were a number of nests up in the rafters. Our bus drove on a huge ferry which took us to Itea, where we got another ship to Italy. I'm a little tired of HARD rolls every meal. This seems to be the standard bread of Europe, except the delicious long bread sticks. Fruit is plentiful and delicious. Carrots and zucchini squash are favorites here.

CAMPING BOOM RESULTS IN REVISED RULES FOR PARKS

Revised rules for camping in Florida State Parks, effective August 1, were announced today by State Parks Director Bill Miller.

Miller said the current camping boom necessitates standard camping procedures throughout the park system to eliminate confusion by both the tourist and park personnel.

The parks director noted that regardless for both family, or adult, camping and youth camping have been revised.

The procedures on family camping spell out the size of the group that may occupy one campsite, what will qualify as one camping rig, a standard check-out time, boat charges, limit of stay in a park, charges for boats or additional cars, refunds, and other matters.

Miller stressed that the family camping fee of $2.00 per night per campsite will remain the same.

However, organized youth groups from Florida who are composed of boys and girls under 21 years of age sponsored by a recognized organization such as a church, Boy or Girl Scouts, Boys Clubs of America, or others, may camp free with a letter of authorization from their governing bodies.

Florida resident juvenile groups without a letter of authorization will be charged $2.00 per night for 10 persons or less. Additional persons will be charged $2.00 for each additional unit of 10 persons or fraction thereof.

Out of state juvenile groups will be charged $2.00 per night per unit of 10 persons or fraction thereof. For adult camping, a family occupying one campsite must consist of one or more adults at least 21 years of age and must not include more than 10 persons. Married persons 18 years of age may qualify as adults.

A standard check-out time of 11 a.m. will be effective in all parks, Miller said. Park opening and closing hours will continue to vary, as heavy tourist demand requires some parks to stay open longer hours.

Karen Carpenter At Camp Crestridge

RIDGECREST, N. C. — Karen Lynn, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Carpenter of 316 N. W. Ave. E. Belle Glade, Fla., is spending five weeks at Camp Crestridge for Girls, Ridgecrest, North Carolina.

The camp, directed by Arvine Bell, is conducted with emphasis on spiritual, social, mental, and physical growth. It is a part of Ridgecrest Baptist Assembly, managed by Willard E. Weeks, owned and operated by the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, Nashville, Tennessee.

Further information on both family and youth camping procedures may be obtained from the Florida Park Board, 101 Gaines, Tallahassee.

Strange it may be, sugar costs less today than it did in Colonial times. In George Washington's time, a pound of sugar cost at least $1.75. Today, a pound of sugar sells for about 25c.

tors and pumps. They export tomatoes and cucumbers which are two feet long, and delicious. There are no snakes here and the Queen Ann's lace and oleanders grow wild. The mountains are green and beautiful. In the Greek Orthodox Church they immerse the children when they are months old. This island is about sixty by forty miles, has no Army, and is a Free Port. Our taxi driver's Impala had cost him only $4,600.

At last we arrived in Athens, and stayed at the Nile Hilton Hotel new and ultra modern. It looked out of place in this ancient city. Ten or twelve years ago there were no buildings over three stories high, but now there seem to be hundreds of buildings eight to ten stories high, and ten million people in Greece and two and a half million mans. It is a wonder anything is left. The Corinth Canal is an engineering feat connecting the Aegean and Ionian Sea. This was started in 900 B.C. later Nero worked on it, but it was not opened until 1894. Sheer rock has been cut 250 feet down to the water, which is 24 feet deep. This canal is seventy five feet wide and four and a half miles long. There are no locks and ships can only go one way at a time. We stopped at the site of Old Corinth and saw the remains of the Temple of Apollo. Troy is where Achilles, Ulysses, and of Hercules fought, and where the famous "Wooden Horse" filled with Greek soldiers was pulled into the city. Greece exports olive oil, wine, wheat, Turkish tobacco, and the simple cotton. The new highway had many miles with pink blooming clean-lin, discuss, and weight throwing, foot and chariot races. The contestants in these games wore no clothes. No wonder the majority of statues of men are nude. Just below this is the Apollo Theatre and Temple. All this is built on a steep mountain and we walked up and down for miles. Old

Keynote Speaker Sept. 20 At Annual FFVA Convention

ORLANDO — Dr. Carl S. Winters of Oak Park, Ill., a writer-lecturer-traveler, will be keynote speaker Sept. 20 at the 23rd annual convention of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association at the Americana Hotel Bal Harbour, Miami Beach.

Dr. Winters has been hailed as a theologian and for his work in crime prevention and rehabilitation.

For 20 years, he headed one of the greatest Baptist churches in the country.

For five years, he was chairman of the Skid Row Commission in Chicago. In Michigan, he was appointed by the governor as chairman of the State Crime Commission. He has devoted his time since 1959 entirely to writing, lecturing, and traveling.

Dr. Winters, listed in Who's Who in America, has been awarded keys to 32 major cities. He has received honorary degrees from three universities, two of them doctors of divinity.

"If I had my choice of any car on my test lot, I'd pick the 'Jeep' Wagoneer"

Noted critic and test driver Tom McCall remarks on the new 'Jeep' Wagoneer.

Recently, in Mechanix Illustrated, Tom McCall said, "My front yard usually resembles a clearing house for a hot car ring. At present, better than $50,000 worth of autos stand there broiling in the hot Florida sun...of the whole kit and caboodle, my choice would be the 'Jeep' Wagoneer." Nearly everyone who's driven the new 4-wheel drive 'Jeep' Wagoneer agrees it's the most versatile and easily produced. "It rides like the best Detroit has to offer," says McCall. "But it'll go places you've got to drive to believe it. See your 'Jeep' dealer. Check the Yellow Pages. SEE 'JEEP' VEHICLES IN ACTION ON 'WORLD SERIES OF GOLF,' SEPTEMBER 10-11, NBC-TV

W. T. Grant July Sales Reach High Record For 16th Consecutive Month

Mr. Nielson, manager of the W. T. Grant store today announced that Company sales of $63,378,296 for the month ending July 31st, an increase of 4.86% or $2,994,298 over July sales in 1985. 8.59% likewise set a new cord and marked the 16th consecutive month in which a sales record was set by the 1100 store national general merchandise Company. Sales for the 7 months of 1986, $435,176,584, an increase of 8.59% likewise set a new Company sales record. Company President Louis C. Lustenberger noted that sales during the first 10 days of July were, very strong, continuing a trend which had developed in late Spring. The persistent extreme heat in many parts of the country, which became a deterrent to general shopping, brought about demand for air conditioning, fans and summer wear, helping the Company attain its record sales.

The Grant Company's store expansion program took a giant step forward on July 28th with the opening of five major new store units, totalling 350,000 square feet of additional store space. Largest of these were the units in Forest Park, Georgia and Worcester, Massachusetts, at $9,000 and $5,000 square feet respectively. Indiana hosted two new Grant Stores in New Castle and Huntington with the fifth in Hanover, Pennsylvania. All feature Bedford House restaurant facilities.

So far in 1986, W. T. Grant has opened 21 new stores and completed 7 major enlargements as it pushes forward in a store expansion program estimated to see the opening of 40 stores by the year's end.

Auxiliary Begins Drive

Auxiliary Unit 161 of the American Legion Post 161 of South Bay conducted their regular business meeting Wednesday night at the Marvin Davis home on S. W. Sixth Avenue. President, Mrs. Vernon (Bonita) Henderson announced that their annual membership drive is underway. She requested that anyone interested in joining the Auxiliary contact her or Mrs. Royne Davis, Secretary.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Davis.

Job Counseling And Employment Placement Available To Vets

George S. Vought, Palm Beach County Veterans' Service Officer, advises that job counseling and employment service is now available to our Viet Nam veterans, and comes under the supervision of the United States Department of Labor, and is administered by Employment Representatives in the local State Employment Service Offices.

Employment counseling and training is provided when needed, with priorities for referral to appropriate training programs and job openings for eligible veterans, and "first come, first served."

Bookkeeping, Typing Classes Begin Sept. 7

Vocational classes for adults will be held in the Belle Glade High School. Bookkeeping will be taught on Monday and Wednesday nights from 7:30 to 10:00 p.m. Registration for this class will be on Sept. 7 at 7:30 p.m.

The class will also be offered in typing. This course will be taught on Thursday nights from 7:30 to 10:00 p.m. Registration for this class will be held in the high school on Sept. 8 at 7:30 p.m.

There will be a $3.00 registration fee plus the cost of the books. These courses are offered by the Palm Beach County Board of Public Instruction and are operated by the Department of Vocational Education.

The little guests enjoyed a singing afternoon on the new gym set, a birthday gift to Cindy from her parents. The party cake, cup cakes and punch were served to Sharon and Warren McKinley of South Shore, Kathie Duncan, Lenora and Kim Sutton, Marie, Kathie, Bonnie and Howard Whidden and Debbie Rudd all of Clewiston. Also present for Cindy's big day were three of her aunts, Mrs. Delores Duncan, Mrs. William Bryant and Mrs. Flora Mae Whidden.

Farming Is Big Business

Farming is the nation's biggest industry, employing six million workers—more than the combined employment in transportation, public utilities, the steel industry and the automobile industry. There are 3.4 million independent producers. Three of every 10 jobs in private employment are related to agriculture. Six million people have jobs providing the supplies farmers use for production and family living. Eight to 10 million have jobs storing, transporting, processing and merchandising the products of agriculture.

Mrs. John D. Hemphill and Mrs. Ted Blausner and son, John Allen, were shopping in West Palm Beach on Tuesday. Mrs. Paul Mitchell and daughter, Nona, of St. Augustine are spending several days with her sister, Mrs. Fred Cato, Mr. Ceto. Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Weathers and Mrs. K. W. Schieding attended the annual picnic of the County Engineer held in Palm Beach Saturday.

THANK YOU

We, the family of Timothy C. Clevenger, wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to our many friends for their kind expressions of sympathy during our time of deep sorrow. We will never forget your kind words.

6.6 Million Lunches Served

There were more than 6.6 million lunches served in the Palm Beach County School cafeterias during the 1985-86 school year, a report from County Superintendent Robert W. Fulton's office shows.

The report made by Mrs. Jane Lansing, county director of the School Lunch Program, excludes Palm Beach Junior College which is privately catered.

Mrs. Lansing reported details and the complete breakdown on the $350,219 worth of lunchroom commodities supplied during the 1985-86 school year by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Among the commodities supplied and listed alphabetically in the report were 27,232 pounds of apples, 63,261 pounds of turkeys (frozen), 34,147 pounds of beef, 70,950 pounds of chicken, 32,640 pounds of corn, 207,900 pounds of flour, 31,968 pounds of large, 40,368 pounds of canned chopped meat, 36,072 pounds of dried milk, 16,890 pounds of frozen orange juice, 33,792 pounds of tomatoes, as well as many other fruits, vegetables, fats, peanut butter, totaling 35 items

Jack Reynolds New Manager For So. Fla. Fair

An old fashioned summertime watermelon picnic was the occasion for a gathering of South Florida Fair Committee members and directors last Wednesday evening at the fair grounds to meet Jack Reynolds, the Fair organization's new General Manager.

V. L. Burkhardt introduced the new Fair manager to the Fair workers and directors. Reynolds had been selected by Fair Directors to take up the tasks of the late Lamar Allen who was recently killed by a heart attack while on a business trip to

New Courses At PB Junior

Students registering at Palm Beach Junior College this week will find five entirely new courses which have not been offered before in the area.

Two of the four are in the area of Dental Health. Two fill definite needs in the educational system of the county. The fifth is of widespread general interest.

The addition of Dental Technology and Dental Assisting to the Dental Hygiene and Dental Research programs already in operation at the college make PBJC's Dental Health program the most complete of any Junior College in the United States.

Dental Assisting will produce young women assistants, trained in both the business functions and in chairside duties customarily given them in dentist's offices. It is a one year course.

Dental Technology, open to both men and women, will teach the skills necessary in this skilled profession. It requires two full years for completion. A new course in Library Technology is aimed especially at upgrading the skills of those who will find employment in the school libraries of the county, but will also prove useful to those employed in other public and private libraries.

In general, the course will teach most of the skills necessary in maintaining a small library, once it has been set up by a librarian, or in providing assistance of many kinds in a large library system. It is a two year course.

A course for educational secretaries will prove useful largely to those contemplating employment in the school system, or already employed there and wishing to upgrade their skills. It is a two year course.

The new modern language department at the college is offering a course in Italian for the first time. Although only a single year in the language is being offered at this time, a second year will follow if there is sufficient demand, according to Dr. Lee E. Butterfield, department chairman.

The usual wide range of courses in general education and technical areas will continue at the college. Air Conditioning Technology and Retailing, two new courses offered for the first time last year are both ready for expansion this fall.

he begins basic training. Steve, a graduate of Belle Glade High School, plans to enter electronics or missiles following basic.

Muscular Dystrophy Office To Serve Seven Counties

Muscular Dystrophy Association of America, Inc. is pleased to announce the opening of a new district office in West Palm Beach located in Room 306 of the Citizens Building, 105 Narcissus Street. This office will serve Palm Beach County as well as Broward, Martin, St. Lucie, Indian River, Okeechobee and Hendry Counties.

Muscular Dystrophy Association of America, Inc., sponsors a broadly conceived research program and maintains a network of clinics throughout the country, and more are being established as medical knowledge about Muscular Dystrophy increases. Our Patient Service Program is available to those who have Muscular Dystrophy or of the related disorders (that are approved by our MDA Patient Service Programs), by helping defray the cost of wheel chairs, lifts, braces and other orthopedic appliances.

The District Director for this office is Janis Schinning. Mrs. Schinning will welcome any calls regarding Muscular Dystrophy Associations and be glad to give assistance to any dystrophic patient. The Muscular Dystrophy Association of America, Inc., exists here to serve the community.

John P. Jones Graduates From UF Law School

John Paul Jones, Jr., graduated from University of Florida Law School with a Juris Doctor degree on August 10 in the law school building. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jones of Belle Glade were present for the occasion.

John Paul is a graduate of Belle Glade High School, attended East Tennessee College and received his BS degree from University of Florida. He is a member of the legal fraternity Phi Alpha Delta and social fraternity, Sigma Phi Epsilon. He is married to the former Janet Jones of Alexandria, Virginia and Saratoga. The couple has two daughters Suzanne and Kathryn. John Paul is house hunting in West Palm Beach, where he will be associated with the law firm of Miller, Cone, Owen, Wagner and Nugent.

Margo Averill To Attend Nat'l. Meeting

Margo Averill left Tuesday for the University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois. As student body president of Dunbarton College, Washington, D. C. Miss Averill will attend the national meeting of the National Student Association there.

About 1,200 student body leaders from throughout the nation will attend. She will return to Belle Glade on September 2, a few days before leaving for her Senior year at Dunbarton College.

REUNION FAMILIAR

Con motivo de la reciente boda de Medardo Espinosa y Rosario Guerrero, vecinos de Hialeah, que tuvo lugar

La pasada semana Ana y Armando Espinosa fueron visitados por sus hermanos, los esposos Olga Espinosa y Miguel Sosa, acompañados de sus hijas Neia y Elaine, procedentes de Connecticut.

El Sr. Eulogio Alvarez lle go de Cuba el pasado día 4 de Agosto, acompañado por su hijo Rafael Alvarez. Fue recibido en Belle Glade con mucha alegría por sus hijos Cucca y Leo Hevia, con quienes reside, y que se hallaban esperándole desde hace mucho tiempo.

Los esposos Alicia y Alberto Loret de Mola, la semana pasada se mudaron a su nueva residencia en 208 NE Ave. K, en Belle Glade. En compañía de sus hijos: Alicia María, María Elena, Vivianne, Patricia y Alberto Enrique.

En la pasada semana los esposos Gloria y Enrique Sanchez llegaron a Belle Glade. Y este lunes ya comenzaron a operar el Latin Grocery, cuyo negocio compraron recientemente. Han sentido recientemente la sección Nor-East de Belle Glade.

Le deseamos mucho éxito en su nueva empresa.

Defunciones

Acaba de fallecer en la Ciudad de Miami, cuando tenía solo unos días de su llegada de Cuba, el Dr. Eugenio Sanchez Agramonte abogado muy querido y estimado en la colonia Cubana. Es hermano de la Sra. Anita Sanchez Agramonte esposa del Ex-Ministro de Chile en Cuba, Excelentísimo Emilio Edwards Bello, y tío muy querido de la encantadora Angelita Ramirez que residió entre nosotros un tiempo. También aquí en Belle Glade lamentan muy de veras su deceso, su tía Herminia G. Vda. de Sanchez Agramonte y sus primos Cora Sanchez A. de Montalvo y Eduardo Montalvo.

Hacemos llegar hasta ellas nuestra sentida condolencia y especialmente a su viuda Angela Horstmann, e hijos Eugenio, Eduardo y Enrique. Le deseamos un eterno descanso por su alma.

EN MIAMI:

Margarita Prieto, de 33 años de edad, su misa requiem en SS. Peter & Paul Church.

Jose Alvarez, 81 años, su misa requiem en St. Mary's Cathedral.

Julia Perez, de 45 años, tendida en la Funeraria Rivero.

Alicia Luna, de 54 años, su misa requiem en la Iglesia St. Hugh.

Esteban F. Perez, de 63 años, fue tendido en la Funeraria Caballero.

WEST PALM BEACH:

El Sr. Jose Vidal, de 63 años, residente de West Palm Beach, falleció el pasado viernes.

Es sobrevivido por su viuda Blanca, su hija Mrs. Pedro Rodriguez, dos hermanos Octavio en New Jersey; y Julio en Cuba; dos hermanas Blanca y Delia Vidal, ambas en Cuba.

Estos se van de nuevo para Washington, de donde son profesores en la Universidad de Tzucuma. La Sra. Kiki S. Remos es una de las que canta en el trío de voces que se ven en el disco BRISA TROPICAL de la Sra. Cora Montalvo.

Hace dos semanas se mudaron Nene y Fermín Presno, familia muy querida en Pahokee, acompañados de sus dos hijos Rosalia y Fermín Jr., para su nueva residencia en 2630 Cedar Crest Road, West Palm Beach, Fla. Y desean ofrecer su casa a todas sus amistades. El día 15 de Agosto, cumplió la encantadora Rosalia 17 años de edad. Y ese día estuvieron de visita toda la familia en Pahokee, en casa de sus cuñados Francisco Presno y familia. Muchas felicitaciones.

En el Programa de Niños Pre-escolares se prepararon 440 niños en el Glades Head Start, los cuales terminaron su curso en Agosto 5. En el Glades area hubo cinco centros, y enseñaron 27 maestros, 400 voluntarios, asistidos por ayudantes.

Una nueva expansión está en construcción en el colegio Junior High, de Belle Glade, que esperan que terminada en Enero. El Junior High comprende los grados Septimo, Octavo y Noveno.

Esta adición se hizo necesaria pues la matrícula excede la cantidad de aulas que existe en la actualidad. La presente capacidad es de 400 alumnos, y esperan 900 para este otoño.

La adición proveerá dos nuevas aulas, teniendo biblioteca, cafetería, oficinas, cuarto de banda, cuarto de coro, aula para artes industriales, facilidades para educación física, cuarto de arte y aula para educación comercial.

A todos los estudiantes que asisten al Belle Glade High School, por primera vez, se les ruega pasen por las oficinas antes del comienzo del colegio. El guía consejero Mr. Therrell Luke recibe desde las 8 am. hasta las cuatro de la tarde. Es importante que se preparen lo mas temprano posibles los itinerarios de los estudios que se van a tomar.

De Interes En Belle Glade

La R. C. A. (Radio Corporation of America) anunció la semana pasada que fabricara circuitos integrados en una nueva planta que construirá adyacente a su actual planta de computadores en Palm Beach Gardens. Quedara abierta a principios de 1967. No se ha estimado aun el numero de empleados que se utilizara.

La ITT Semiconductors Inc. tambien construye en West Palm Beach otra planta para fabricar circuitos integrados. Los circuitos integrados se fabrican de pequeñas pastillas de silicón mas pequeñas que esta letra "o". Cada unidad reemplaza muchos componentes como transistores, diodos y resistores.

La medida se encuentra bajo estudio de la Camara de Representantes, en un subcomite de inmigración presidido por el Representante Michael A. Feighan, Demócrata, de Ohio.

Hasta ahora la unica forma en que los refugiados pueden cambiar su status, es saliendo de los Estados Unidos y regresando despues de solicitar la visa permanente en algun Consulado norteamericano de otro pais. Unos 75,000 de 300,000 refugiados han hecho eso, pero para muchos el viaje a otro pais es demasiado costoso. El Subsecretario de Estado, George Ball, testifico ante el comite, y dijo que el otorgar la residencia permanente demostraria "el deseo de los Estados Unidos de desempeñar plenamente y con simpatia la funcion de pais de asilo de los refugiados del comunismo."

New Teachers At Belle Glade High

THE NEW TEACHERS at Belle Glade High School are: Wayne Tullio, Maurice E. Hammond, Wayne Trego and Jimmie Lowry.

Four new teachers will be at Belle Glade High School this year.

Wayne Tullio will be Dean of Boys and will teach American History. He is from Philadelphia, Mississippi and received his BS from Mississippi College in Clinton, Mississippi in 1957. He received his M. Ed. in 1963. Tullio has moved to Belle Glade with his wife, Jackie.

Maurice E. Hammond and his wife Martha are also from Mississippi. They have four children, Sandra, 14, Jonli 12, Candie 10, and Maurice Jr. 7. Hammond graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1955. He will teach 10th grade biology and physical science. He will also coach baseball and serve as backfield coach in football.

Hammond's home was Moss Point, Mississippi.

Wayne and Donna Trego have two children, Suzanne 5, and Steve 1. Trego will teach industrial arts. He is from Florence, Kentucky and received his degree from Murray State in 1964.

Trego has been in Belle Glade for nine weeks working with the summer program.

Jimmie Kent Lowry is also from Kentucky and will teach Senior English. He graduated from Murray State University in 1964 and is presently working for his masters in school administration.

Students May Register At PBJC Through Friday, August 19

It is anticipated 5,000 students will have enrolled at Palm Beach Junior College before this work is out.

College officials are expecting close to 3,400 day students with 3,000 registered before Thursday, August 18. The remaining students will register today, and late registration, for which an extra fee of $5 is charged, will be on Friday.

Last year's 5,312 enrollment was the highest in the history of the college, and an enrollment of 5,000 to 5,200 is expected this fall.

By full utilization of all classrooms, as many as 5,200 students may be given an opportunity for education at the college.

Day student enrollment is not expected to go beyond the 3,400 limit set by Dr. Harold C. Manor as the maximum that can be handled satisfactorily.

Predictions for evening enrollment are always more difficult, but no serious jamming problem will occur until enrollment reaches 1,800.

This does not mean that every student will be able to arrange the schedule he desires, but a fair selection of classes at some hour of the day or evening will remain until the overall enrollment of 5,200 is reached.

NO SPELLING BOOM

Education today is in the midst of a great boom.

During the year, over 53 million people—or 28 percent of all Americans—were enrolled in school. Total cash outlays for public and private schools exceeded $36 billion, up more than tenfold from $3.4 billion in 1940.

The figures speak for education are most impressive. We would be more impressed if, after spending all that money, Johnny would know how to spell.

Before The Hurricanes Strike

AUG. 18, 1966 THE HERALD.

Hilda in 1964—Betsy in 1965—These hurricanes left thousands of people without food or cooking facilities. Yet there were no reports of anyone suffering from hunger. This rather remarkable feat—keeping half million or so people fed on an emergency basis—hinged on two factors: The availability of food donated by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the efficient use of this food by local workers and disaster-relief organizations to feed the hurricane victims. Local efforts depended heavily on a plan set up by the Louisiana Department of Education and Welfare.

Another hurricane season is here. Again, the U.S. Weather Bureau has selected names to identify hurricanes that may develop this season in the South Atlantic and Caribbean, or in the Gulf of Mexico, And again, if destructive hurricanes occur, disaster-relief organizations and local workers can lean heavily on USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service and cooperating USDA distributing agencies for the food needed to feed the displaced and the homeless. To make maximum use of USDA food, any person connected in any way with disaster-relief needs to know where this food comes from and how it can be obtained when needed.

USDA acquires food through its price-support and surplus-removal programs. The food, suitably processed and packaged for home and institutional use, is then shipped in carload lots to participating States and U.S. territories. State agencies then take over the management and distribution of the food to local institutions. The communities make final distribution to eligible recipients, needy families, charitable institutions, schools and non-profit summer camps for children.

USDA food can always be diverted to feed victims of natural disasters. They are generally available from school lunch storerooms, institution storerooms, needy family distribution depots, or local warehouses either owned, leased or arranged for by a State, city, or county.

Until another source of USDA food shipments in transit that USDA may divert to benefit a disaster area.

Any food used for emergency feeding is quickly replaced by USDA food to the everyday distribution programs can continue to fulfill their missions.

Using USDA food to feed victims of a natural disaster

It's 1966

HURRICANE TIME

ter is an excellent side-benefit from a program designed primarily to benefit needy children and adults. Here is how a State reacts to minimize the suffering that an impending hurricane may cause:

While communication lines are still open, people in the path of the hurricane are instructed to leave their homes and flee to high ground and "to head for a schoolhouse."

Local school lunch managers are urged to fill out their storeroom needs with USDA foods. These foods are used first when feeding begins and supplemented and replaced as needed.

The State department of education alerts local school superintendents and school lunch managers to use USDA A-donated foods, and to gear the kitchens for mass feeding.

The State department of public welfare alerts local welfare offices to ready USDA food for distribution to emergency shelters and needy families.

District representatives of USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service keep in touch with developments. They are prepared to divert USDA food shipments as necessary and to render other services. They are assigned and reassigned if emergencies and bottlenecks develop.

Storm victims are fed free of charge. Experienced Federal and State distribution officials keep feeding operations rolling. Feeding sites seldom lack donated foods. Properly certified disaster victims can receive US

Promotion Takes Al Harris And Family To Valdosta, Ga.

Al Harris, Program Director for Radio Station WSWN since 1956 has moved to Valdosta, Georgia to assume charge of programming and production at WGOV.

Marvin Smith, General Manager of WSWN announced the promotion of Harris as a well-deserved achievement of outstanding capability. Al has shown in radio, Smith stated that the move had been under consideration for some time, pointing out that Harris represented a completely special schooling in Sarasota prior to the move. The local station manager expressed delight in the advancement for Harris although his valuable assistance at WSWN will be greatly missed.

Mrs. Harris and two children will be joining Mr. Harris as soon as housing arrangements have been completed.

The Valdosta station is under the same ownership as WSWN, with E. D. Rivers, Jr., heading the organization. Other stations in the chain include K-WAM, Memphis, WGUN, Atlanta and WBA5, Savannah.

Junior Women Enjoy Luncheon

The Belle Glade Junior Woman's Club enjoyed a luncheon at the regular business meeting held at the Country Club. Mrs. Curtis Thompson, Jr., president presided.

Mrs. Robert Hooker, introduced Janet Hotard who sang several songs, and also accompanied herself on the guitar. Margaret Thompson played a solo on the piano and also accompanied Catherine Smith as she sang three numbers. Miss Libby White gave a most impressive reading.

The girls received much applause for their intertainment.

There were 30 members attending the luncheon meeting and three guests, Miss Mary Lou Copeland, Mrs. Don Fiehs and Mrs. Harry Chaney.

JHS Football Practice To Start

Junior High School football practice will start Monday, August 29, according to Coach Dale Hilburn.

All eighth and ninth graders who wish to go out for the football team must pick up health forms at the Belle Glade Junior High School office this week.

The boys are to report for practice Monday at 3 p. m. No seventh graders will be playing this year in the county, Coach Hilburn said.

Policy On Personal Appearance In Schools Amended For 1966-67

To assist parents and students purchasing school clothes for the beginning of school, August 29, Superintendent Robert W. Fulton announces that there will be very little change in the 1966-67 school year. The conditions which applied to the student dress and appearance last year will be in effect this year, he said.

"School principals evaluated the pupil appearance policy in a study which extended over most of the 1965-66 school year," Mr. Fulton said. It has been recommended that culottes for girls, skirt-jacks and those shirts with a ribbed bottom at the natural waistline and economical sandal-type shoes which are constructed for a neat and secure fitting be permitted this year.

GENERAL APPLICATION TO ALL SCHOOLS

The enlarged concept of public school responsibility dictates that the schools teach many things in addition to the generally accepted subject matter curriculum.

The majority of students conform to acceptable standards of dress, but all pupils in all schools shall give attention to their personal appearance. Such matters determine the climate for learning, and all have a profound effect on the mental attitude of the educational situation. Any style or manner of dress that tends to draw undue attention to an individual to such extent that it becomes a classroom distraction is prohibited.

FOR SECONDARY SCHOOLS APPLICATION

Boys and girls in the junior and senior high schools are to dress in good taste. This dictates that the girls will not wear dacks; jeans; shorts; pedal-pushers; dresses which are low-cut in front or back; dresses with spaghetti straps; tight blouses, skirts, dresses; headkerchiefs; hair curlers; or excessive make-up. Skirts must be at least midknee length. Boys must wear belts at the waistline except in the case of trousers designed to be worn without belts. Shirts (boys and girls) shall be tucked in. However, such shirts as banlon with a ribbed bottom, shirt-jack, or similar shirts designed to be worn at the natural waistline are acceptable. All shirts shall be buttoned to a refined neck level. Jeans may be worn if they are clean and neat but not tight. Shorts or any type of trousers that are not considered the conventional type are not to be worn. Boys must wear socks at all times.

Boys and girls are to wear shoes at all times. No boots, no shoes with cleats, exposed nails or other abrasive materials are to be worn. Loosely fitted beachwear (beachies, thongs, etc.) will not be worn to school. Sandal type shoes will be constructed to provide a neat and secure fitting. Boys are to come to school with clean shaves. Hair cuts and hair styles (boys and girls) shall not be extreme or ridiculous.

Intentional disfigurement of the skin, objectionable markings, objectionable insignia on the skin or clothing will not be permitted.

Since it is not possible to predict styles or fads, it is the responsibility of the administrators in the individual schools to deal with problems of personal appearance standards.

A student missing any class time in order of conformity to the School Board policy in the matter of personal appearance will receive an unexcused absence for the time he is away from class.

Cattlemen Should Keep Close Watch

Florida cattlemen should keep an unusually close watch on conditions which would lead to dumping of more than usual cattle from feedlots on the markets during the coming months. The following quotation from Florida Livestock Round-up is worthy of careful study:

Cattlemen throughout the nation are continuing to increase their output of beef. Prospective supplies are considerably larger than those of last year, judging from the USDA report of the cattle on feed, July 1. According to this report, 11 per cent more cattle are on feed than of July a year ago. The big increase could lead to serious price declines if marketings are bunched, but an analysis of the report shows no reason to expect any unusual bunching during the next six months.

If marketings of fed cattle

Evening Music Courses At PB Junior College

The Music Department of Palm Beach Junior College is offering a number of classes in the evening in the Fall semester.

These classes are open to interested persons in the community, and application may be made at the time of registration, Monday through Thursday, August 15-18.

String Techniques, basic class instruction in violin, viola, cello and string bass.

The demand for beef seems to increase about 3 per cent a year; that is, we can sell about 3 per cent more beef without any price reduction. But, if there is 6 to 8 per cent more beef to sell, prices may fall by something like 10 per cent — $2 to $3 a hundred lbs. from the $27 level in the last half of 1965.

Three courses are offered on Tuesday nights: Music Appreciation, a study of music styles, forms, composers and their works, will be taught by Miss Letha Madge Royce; Fundamentals of Music, an introductory course in music skills and theory, will be taught by Mr. D. Hugh Albee; and Music Theory, a course which includes the melodic, harmonic and rhythmic elements of music, will be taught by Mr. Otis Harvey.

A corequisite of the Music Theory is Sightreading, which will be offered on Thursday nights and will also be taught by Mr. Harvey.

The classes will be held in the Humanities Building. Additional information may be obtained by telephone from the Music Department or the college registrar.
